Engineer a better future.

STAGE Employee Development Program

Starting Together And Gaining Experience (STAGE)

STAGE is our employee development rotation program. Through STAGE, employees complete rotations with at least two departments outside of their own. This broadens recent graduates' hands-on experience and understanding of Aerotech, ultimately ensuring a well-rounded start to their career here.

Broaden Your Perspective

Participants gain many benefits from their rotations, including:

- Hands-on technical experience
- Enhanced professional & business skills
- Familiarity with career paths & opportunities
- Expanded network of colleagues
- Better understanding of Aerotech's capabilities

Participating Departments

- Research & Development Engineering
- Systems Engineering
- Applications Engineering
- Technical Sales
- Marketing - Business Development
- Marketing - Product Management
- Manufacturing

Benefits

We're a high-tech company that puts people first, investing in our employees with competitive salaries, benefits, profit sharing and our Employee Stock Ownership Plan.
